BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

Hope for Women In Difficult Relationships

If you have been living with a wounded heart because of a difficult relationship, or know someone who has, please join us for a FREE seminar with Paula Silva of Focus Ministries.

You are not alone.

About the Speaker: Paula Silva

Paula is co-founder and President of FOCUS Ministries, Inc. She is co-author of the book, Violence Among Us: Ministry to Families in Crisis. She graduated from Northeastern Illinois University with a master's degree in counseling. She is a support group leader, speaker, workshop leader, and domestic violence trainer for churches, pastors, and leaders.

Paula serves on the Inter-Faith Leadership Advisory Committee for the Mayor's Office of Domestic Violence in Chicago and is a member of the American Association of Christian Counselors. She has been a guest on the Moody Broadcasting Network and on the Harvest TV Show.

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, sure and strong. It enters behind the curtain in the Most Holy Place in heaven."
Hebrews 6:19

SESSION 1

Looking into the Mirror

What are God's key elements of healthy, safe relationships?

SESSION 2

Holding On

As we examine our relationships, wounds of the past will surface. What or who are we holding onto that influences our present relationships?

SESSION 3

Moving Forward

Hope leads to redemptive healing. Taking the wounds of the past to the cross begins our healing.
